3. Section A (Threat).

- Discussion. Review Group examined the paper and the Summary and recommended that the final version include mention of the Soviet economy and the nature of the threat in Asia, and revise para 17, 39. Group also recommended that para 2-3 be revised. There were no unresolved issues. Ideas were presented on the topic most suitable for discussion at the NSC meeting.
- Results. Recommended changes were accepted and will be reflected in the version to be presented to the NSC. The Topic to be developed for discussion at the NSC meeting will be the overall prospective future that the document portrays.

4. Section B (Role of Allies)

- Discussion. Review Group examined the paper, the summary, and the conclusions and recommended a number of changes to improve the clarity and completeness of the document. There were no unresolved issues. Ideas were presented on the topic most suitable for discussion at the NSC meeting.
- Results. Recommended changes were accepted and will be reflected in the version to be presented to the NSC. The topic to be developed for discussion at the NSC meeting will be the fundamental nature of allies' contributions to U.S. national security policy with emphasis on: (1) Role of allies in out-of-area locations; (2) importance of arrangements for access, HNS, and basing; (3) required capabilities of indigenous forces. This Topic is also to be linked to the summary conclusions contained in Section A.

5. Section C (Military Objectives)

- Discussion. Discussion centered on the proposed issue papers. Questions and comments pertaining to strategy, force development, linkage between theaters, appropriateness of raising issue in Section C, budget implications, and wartime planning were brought before the Review Group. LTG Gorman also requested that the statement in the paper that describes JCS views about a conflict in Southwest Asia be deleted.
- Results. LTG Gorman's request was accepted and the change will be reflected in the version to be presented to the NSC. The Review Group reached agreement on the two issue papers: both issue papers are to be revised and will become the discussion papers for the NSC meeting; the force capability peacetime military objective for Southwest Asia is to be Option B as revised; the discussion paper on NATO vs Southwest Asia is to be revised and will reflect both peacetime and wartime implications for both the near-term and beyond.
